DEAR REAL LIFE

MARCH 23, 2014 | ALI LINX | 1 COMMENT

Hi everyone,

Yes, I know. It has been a very long time indeed since I have posted here. And yes, I know I promised to keep writing here no matter what but I failed to do that. The bad news is: Real Life has been so kind and nice to me that it gave me tons of things to deal with. The good news is: I'm still here 😊

I have posted on my facebook page and my profile. I have tweeted on Twitter and posted on Google+ as well (didn't share that publicly, only with my circle). My grandmother was at ICU for a heart failure so you may imagine how stressful I was. Of course, that is not everything. Had several other issues to deal with.

That's from my side.

As for what we have promised to deliver a month ago which is an ISO to play with as the very first image of ToriOS, we're very sorry for not keeping our promise and the reason is, yet again, Real Life.

Our main developer Alex had and still have personal issues to deal with. He was kind enough to contact me on facebook to tell me that and every time he tries to be back to action, it seems he got yet another issue to deal with.

You see, we have not given up and will never do. It is just that Real Life had the upper hand.

Needless to say, Real Life should always comes first 😊

Hopefully, we shall be back to action very soon.

This is a quick post to update everyone of what is going on and of course, an apology for not being in touch with the world. Please, forgive us/me.

Thank you!

P.S.

Dear Real Life, take it easy 😊
